ROHRS Admonishment (Rev. May 2022)

Rohrs, 57 OR App 494 (1998)

I am asking you to provide physical cooperation and submit to purely physical field sobriety tests. None of the tests I will ask you to perform will require you to reveal your thoughts, beliefs or state of mind. The tests will include the horizontal gaze nystagmus test, the walk and turn test and the one leg stand test (briefly explain & demonstrate tests excluding counting out loud). Do you have any questions regarding these tests or what I am asking you to do? Your failure to provide physical cooperation and submit to these purely physical tests may be used against you in any criminal or civil proceeding.

Notice of Private Consultation (Rev 8/2023)

If the driver asks to make a phone call to anyone, including an attorney, for the purpose of getting advice regarding the breath test, read implied consent 1A and 1B and the following before providing the person a telephone.

"I am providing you with a phone and privacy to make a phone call. This is your opportunity to attempt to communicate or consult with anyone you want, including an attorney. A phone book will be provided to you. You will have a reasonable amount of time based on the circumstances to use the phone, up to 15 to 20 minutes."
