

Training opportunities

- Training by request at your agency
- Let us know what your training needs are
- Online classes
- Web-based information guides

I use the State Library's access to O'Reilly to expand and improve my coding skills."

- ODOT employee

You guys are fantastic and my job would be impossible without you."

- DAS employee

Contact us

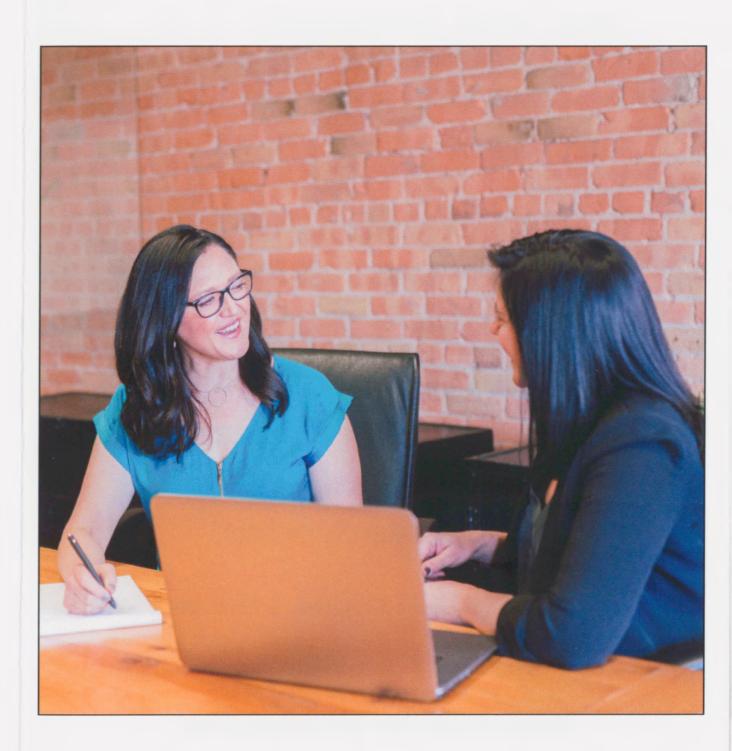

250 Winter St. NE Salem, OR 97301

503-378-8800 library.state.or.us library.help@state.or.us

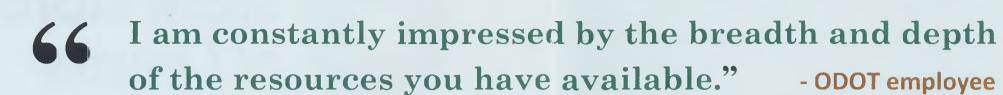

Our mission

The Government Information and Library Services Division provides quality information services to assist state employees in the efficient performance of their jobs and in more effective decision making for state government.

Helping State Employees

Government Information and Library Services

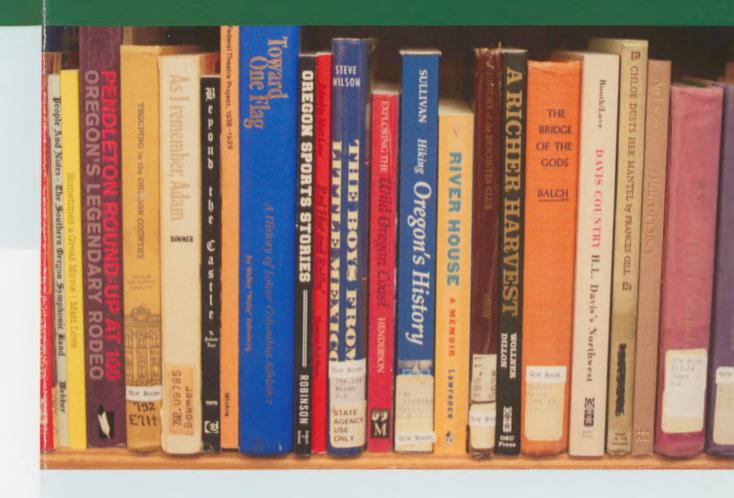

Support for your research

- Librarians are available by phone, chat, email, or in person
- Research assistance from subject specialists
 - Every state agency has a subject specialist assigned as their embedded librarian.
 - These librarians can come to your agency for in-person trainings and help with your specific research needs.
- Databases that support the work of state agencies
 - Resources for professional development
 - Thousands of journal articles and ebooks available online
 - Keep up with trends in your field

Access library materials

- ODOT employee

- Books, ebooks, self-paced online courses and tutorials, journal articles, and databases
- Comprehensive collection of Oregon state government publications, and materials about state government and Oregon history
- Efficient delivery of articles, books, reports, and more
- Daily emails with links to news and opinions on Oregon state government through eClips and eClips Extra

[The State Library] answered a question we had been trying to figure out for five years."

- PERS employee

- We consider our embedded librarian as part of our extended team."
 - Oregon Advocacy Commissions employee
- The resources available [at the State Library] have been invaluable to me."

- DAS employee

66 The receipt of requested materials is fast and easy and the librarians are always willing to assist."

- Oregon State Police employee