

Eastern Oregon Correctional Institution – APPLY TODAY

Eastern Oregon Correctional Institution is in Pendleton, a rural community of 17,000 at the base of the Blue Mountains. While best known for the Pendleton Round-Up, many other recreational and entertainment opportunities exist in and around the Pendleton area. With its sunny and dry summers and mild winters, there is something for everyone in the Pendleton area.

The Blue Mountains and the Eagle Cap Wilderness Area east of Pendleton are popular outdoor recreation areas year-round. Camping, hiking, hunting, and fishing activities are plentiful. Closer to home, you can hit the links at one of the area golf courses, explore the Pendleton Underground, tour the famous Pendleton Woolen Mills, or visit the Wildhorse Resort and Casino.

In addition to the Pendleton School District, options for higher education include Blue Mountain Community College in Pendleton, Walla Walla Community College, and Whitman College in nearby Walla Walla, Washington. Housing possibilities vary widely, ranging from homes and apartments in town to more rural properties in the surrounding area.

Pendleton is centrally located, with Walla Walla and Tri-Cities, Washington, Portland Oregon, and Boise, Idaho all within driving distance. The Eastern Oregon Regional Airport in Pendleton provides additional transportation options.
