From: Lilia Teninty, Director, Office of Developmental Disabilities Services
Subject: New webpage for American Rescue Plan Act funding opportunities

The Office of Developmental Disabilities Services (ODDS) is developing funding opportunities with approximately $300 million of combined American Rescue Plan Act (ARPA) funding matched with Oregon General Fund. These ARPA project funding opportunities are focused on COVID-19 recovery needs and expanding capacity for home and community-based settings in an equitable way that aligns with the ODDS North Star Statement on Equity.

ODDS has a new webpage with information about the ARPA funding opportunities. When grants are open for application, details will be listed on the webpage. There is also information about grants coming soon and a project plan listing all the funding opportunities. This webpage will be updated regularly.

Our first grant announcement is coming soon.

I hope you will share this webpage with anyone who might be interested. We will keep you informed as grants open for application.

Sincerely,
