Bid Reference Documents are made available solely to help familiarize Users with ODOT projects, but do not relieve Bidders or Contractors from any duties to investigate, inspect, follow responsible bidding procedures, or perform the terms of the Contract. Unless expressly included in the Project Special Provisions, a Bid Reference Document obtained from ODOT eBIDS will not become part of the Contract. If any, a project's Bid Reference Documents will only be available to Users on ODOT eBIDS during the project's solicitation period. Bidders who are registered to be on the list of Holder of Bidding Plans and are prequalified in at least one class of work for a project may download a project's Bid Booklet from ODOT eBIDS. However, a Bidder's ability to download a project's Bid Booklet does not guarantee the Bidder's prequalification or bid responsiveness for that project.
