

NOW ACCEPTING APPLICATIONS

Developing Equity Leadership through Training and Action (DELTA) is a professional health equity leadership program that provides education, coaching and consultation for healthcare administrators, community leaders, policy makers, and clinicians in Oregon.

Program Overview

A cohort of 20-25 individuals will participate in educational sessions with local, state and national leaders in the areas of health equity, diversity and inclusion. Participants will deepen their understanding of health equity and receive training and coaching for practical application of skills. In addition, they will develop a project to implement within their organizations.

2024 Program

When: 2024 Cohort will include 10 full-day sessions from January – September.

Where: All sessions will be held in person at locations around the state based on cohort members' locations.

Cost: Participants must be sponsored by their organizations – see website for details. Needs-based scholarships available.

How to Apply: Information and application on the DELTA website: <https://www.oregon.gov/oha/EI/Pages/DELTA.aspx>

Application Deadline Extended: December 4, 2023

Individuals who apply by November 13, will be notified of their status by November 30.

Individuals who apply between November 13 - December 4, will be notified by December 18.

For information, contact: Mehera Christian, DELTA Coordinator mehera.n.christian@oha.oregon.gov, or 971-346-6602 (voice and text) - all relay calls accepted.

You can get this information in other languages, large print, braille, or a format you prefer free of charge.