IAP Pre-Retirement Beneficiary Designation

This form is strictly for the Individual Account Program (IAP).

Things to consider

- You must fill out a beneficiary form for the Individual Account Program (IAP) even if you have already submitted a PERS Tier One/Tier Two Pre-Retirement Beneficiary form.
- It is important that you file a Designation of Beneficiary form with PERS for your IAP account. If you die before retirement and there is no IAP Designation of Beneficiary form on file, distribution of your IAP account will be in accordance with statute, in the following order of priority: your surviving spouse or other person who is constitutionally required to be treated in the same manner as a spouse, your surviving children, and your estate.
- If your designated beneficiary predeceases you, any IAP death benefits that might be due and payable will be distributed in accordance with statute.
- If you have an IAP and an alternate payee IAP account, you need to fill out a separate form for each account.

Information for married applicants

- Your IAP account must be paid to your spouse unless your spouse consents to a different beneficiary.
- If you want to designate someone other than your spouse, your spouse must sign a notarized consent.
- Your spouse can revoke this consent up to the time of your death. To revoke spousal consent, your spouse must complete and submit the IAP: Revocation of Spousal Consent of Beneficiary Designation form. Once PERS accepts and approves the revocation form, your spouse will be considered the beneficiary unless PERS receives another valid IAP Designation of Beneficiary form.
- If you name your spouse as beneficiary and you get divorced, your spouse will be deemed as having predeceased you unless you or a court order expressly designates your former spouse to continue as beneficiary after the effective date of your divorce. This means that your former spouse is no longer your beneficiary unless otherwise provided by you or a court order.
- If your spouse has consented to another beneficiary and you have designated a primary beneficiary other than your spouse in Section C, your spouse must sign the form in front of a notary to complete Section D.

IAP Pre-Retirement Beneficiary Designation

Section A: Member information

First name	MI	Last name	PERS ID (optional)
Mailing address (street or PO box)			Social Security number (SSN)*
City	State	ZIP code	Country	Date of birth (mm/dd/yyyy)
Home phone number	Work phone number	Cell phone number	Personal email

Section B: Beneficiary designation (select only one)

- SPECIFIC - I elect to use the Specific designation. (Complete Section C and D.)
If married, you must designate your spouse as the sole 100% primary beneficiary unless your spouse provides notarized consent allowing designation of another party.
- STANDARD - I elect to use the Standard designation. (Complete Section D.)
If married, your spouse is the sole 100% primary beneficiary by default under the Standard designation.

The standard designation directs PERS to pay benefits in the order listed below:

- 1) Your spouse, if legally married at the time of death. If not married, then to
- 2) Your child or children in equal shares. If any of your children are deceased, their portion is equally divided between their children who are alive at the time of your death. If all of your children predecease you, the benefit will be awarded to your grandchildren living at the time of your death, in equal shares. If no children or grandchildren survive you, then to
- 3) Your mother and father in equal shares, or to the survivor. If neither survives, then to
- 4) Your brothers and sisters in equal shares, and the share of any brother or sister who does not survive you, to their children living at the time of your death in equal shares. If none of your brothers or sisters survive you, to the children of your brothers and sisters living at the time of your death in equal shares. If neither your siblings nor their children survive you, then to
- 5) Your estate.

Natural born and adopted children are considered “children” even if you selected the standard designation before or after their adoption or birth. If your children are adopted by someone else, they are not considered your “children” under the standard designation. If you wish to name the adopted-out children as your beneficiary, use the specific designation part of this form.

*Providing your Social Security number (SSN) is voluntary. It will be used for confirmation purposes. If you choose not to supply your SSN, it could take PERS staff longer to process your form. In compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act, PERS will provide help filling out this form upon request. You can request help by calling toll free 888-320-7377 or TTY 503-603-7766.

Section C: Specific designation (persons, charity, trust, or estate) instructions

Naming specific beneficiaries

If married, you must name your spouse as your sole 100% primary beneficiary unless your spouse provides notarized consent allowing designation of another party as primary. The notarized spousal consent is required regardless of the percentage(s) designated to a primary other than your spouse.

If you need to add more beneficiaries, attach an additional sheet of paper that includes all the same information listed in the table for each beneficiary. Include your name and SSN at the top of each additional sheet.

- The percentages assigned to primary beneficiaries must total 100%.
- If you do not assign percentages, the beneficiaries on that level (primaries or alternates under each specific primary) will share equally.
- You can name one or more alternate beneficiaries for each of your primary beneficiaries. The alternates will receive the primary beneficiary's share if the primary beneficiary predeceases you.
Note: The percentage you designate for the alternates must equal the percentage you assigned to the primary beneficiary (i.e., if you designate 50% to primary beneficiary #1 and have two alternates for that beneficiary, the percentages for the two alternates must total 50%).
- If you name your estate as a beneficiary, you may not provide an alternate beneficiary for your estate.

Example for naming specific beneficiaries:

Specific Primary beneficiary #1		If living; otherwise, to #1 alternate beneficiary(ies).
